

After Downing the Russian Fighter...by Numbers

Numbers of Martyrs and Airstrikes

On November 24 2015 Turkish Air Force shoot down a Russian Jet Fighter, after penetrating the Turkish airspace while it was carried out airstrikes inside Syrian territory. January 18 2016 is the middle day of the Russian intervention before and after this incident.

Comparing before and after: Reporting 902 vs 672 Airstrikes led to nearly 1410 martyrs versus 830 martyrs during the same period. which mean increasing of 15% in the Russian airstrikes and increasing of 26% in the number of martyrs during the same period. this translating into an increasing of 33% in the rate of The Russian airstrikes that led to death among civilians.

Numbers of Massacres in each Month

Also we can find a significant increase in The number of Massacres committed by the Russian Airstrikes during the past months. the increasing of massacres lead to the death of more than 546 martyrs, that equivalent to 24% of the total number of 2240 martyrs whome killed by the Russian airstrikes

